सीमा के जिलों में घटी खाद बिक्री

बिक्री को किसान आईडी, फसल की जरूरत व भूमि रिकॉर्ड से जोड़ने का असर

संजीव मुखर्जी
नई दिल्ली, 23 अक्टूबर

चालू वित्त वर्ष में उर्वरक सब्सिडी 3 लाख करोड़ रुपये तक पहुंच सकती है जबकि बजट में आंकड़ा करीब 1.7 लाख करोड़ रुपये रहने का अनुमान लगाया गया है। किंतु सरकार के एक विश्लेषण से पता चलता है कि देश के कुछ सीमावर्ती जिलों में खरीफ 2025 और 2026 के बीच उर्वरक की बिक्री में 37.56 फीसदी की भारी गिरावट आई। यह गिरावट तब आई जब एग्रीस्टैक या अन्य प्लेटफॉर्म के जरिये उर्वरक बिक्री को किसानों की आईडी, फसल की जरूरत और भूमि रिकॉर्ड से जोड़े जाने की शुरुआत हुई।

इन आंकड़ों से यह भी संकेत मिलता है कि शायद कीमतों में भारी अंतर के कारण भारत से नेपाल, बांग्लादेश और म्यांमार जैसे पड़ोसी देशों में उर्वरक और विशेष रूप से यूरिया की तस्करी हो रही थी।

भारत में यूरिया की बिक्री भारी सब्सिडी के साथ की जाती है और 45 किलोग्राम की बोरी की कीमत करीब 265 रुपये है। इस प्रकार इसकी कीमत करीब 6 रुपये प्रति किलोग्राम होती है। मगर सितंबर 2026 में 392 डॉलर प्रति टन की कीमत और 1 डॉलर के बदले 94.88 रुपये की विनिमय दर के हिसाब से इसकी 45 किलोग्राम की बोरी की मौजूदा वैश्विक कीमत करीब 1,674 रुपये है। मई 2026 में आयात लागत सहित इसकी कीमत 950 डॉलर प्रति टन तक पहुंच गई थी।

भारत में औद्योगिक इस्तेमाल के लिए बेचे जाने वाले यूरिया को टेक्निकल ग्रेड यूरिया (टीजीयू) कहा जाता है। इसकी कीमत फिलहाल 70 रुपये प्रति किलोग्राम है। अधिकारियों ने कहा कि कीमत में बड़े अंतर के कारण खेती में इस्तेमाल होने वाले यूरिया को औद्योगिक इस्तेमाल के लिए भेजने का काम शुरू हो जाता है।

आंकड़ों से पता चलता है कि एग्रीस्टैक एवं अन्य संबंधित प्लेटफॉर्म से उर्वरक बिक्री को जोड़े जाने के बाद मेघालय के कुछ सीमावर्ती जिलों में इसकी बिक्री 17.35 फीसदी तक घट गई। इसी प्रकार त्रिपुरा के सीमावर्ती जिलों में यह गिरावट 81.42 फीसदी तक पहुंच गई। इन दोनों राज्यों की सीमा बांग्लादेश से मिलती है। देश के कुछ अन्य जिलों में उर्वरक बिक्री प्रारूप (एफएफएस) को परीक्षण के आधार पर लागू किया जा रहा है। सरकारी आंकड़ों के अनुसार, उन जिलों में खरीफ 2026 के दौरान बेचे गए उर्वरक की कुल मात्रा में खरीफ 2025 की समान अवधि के मुकाबले करीब 24.84 फीसदी की गिरावट आई है। (शेष पृष्ठ 3)

AS AMIT SHAH BATS FOR NDA GOVT IN POLL-BOUND PUNJAB

Sukhbir Badal's Alliance Pitch Puts BJP-SAD Reunion Back in Focus

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: A day after senior BJP leader Amit Shah spoke about an NDA government in Punjab, Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) chief Sukhbir Singh Badal on Friday said the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) and the Congress are the "biggest enemies" of Punjab, adding that his party was open to an alliance with other parties that agreed with its ideology and programmes.

Shah on Thursday talked about forming an NDA government in Punjab, marking a shift from the party's earlier position of forming a BJP government in the state. His remarks have fuelled the buzz about a possible reunion between the erstwhile allies BJP and Akali Dal in Punjab.

Last month, while addressing a rally in Jalandhar at the conclusion of the party's 'Nasha Mukt Punjab Yatra', Shah had refrained from attacking the SAD and did not even mention contesting all 117 assembly seats in the state. Talking to reporters in Chandigarh after meeting the Punjab Governor, Badal asserted that peace prevailed in the state when the SAD-BJP coalition government was in power. Assembly elections in Punjab are scheduled to be held early next year. Badal said a SAD delegation met Punjab Governor Gulab Chand Kataria and discussed how an "incompetent chief minister" had ruined the state, adding that the law and order situation had completely collapsed.

The delegation, led by Badal, met the governor over the recent killing of anti-drug activist Parvinder Singh Jhota in Mansa and submitted a memorandum with several demands, including the dismissal of CM Bhagwant Mann.

Speaking to reporters, Badal said, "During the SAD-BJP rule, peace prevailed in Punjab, and the state witnessed development in infrastructure and industry, besides becoming power-surplus." "Whether we form the government or not, we will continue to fight for the people of Punjab. In our view, Congress and AAP are the two biggest enemies of Punjab, and we can never have an understanding with these parties. There are many other parties, and we are open (to a tie-up) with those that agree with the Akali Dal's ideology and programmes," he said.

Earlier in August, Badal's meeting with Prime Minister Narendra Modi at his office in Parliament House had triggered speculation about the possibility of the regional party joining hands with the BJP again. The SAD had snapped its 24-year-old alliance with the BJP in September 2020 over the now-scrapped three farm laws.

Andhra Local Poll Row: YSRCP Alleges Attacks, Seeks Central Forces

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: As Andhra Pradesh State Election Commission (SEC) gave two more days to candidates to file nominations in four of the 19 municipalities flagged by the YSRCP, the Opposition accused TDP of not following the Supreme Court directive and demanded the appointment of an amicus curiae to supervise the local body elections and deployment of central forces and CCTV coverage to ensure free and fair polls.

On its part, TDP filed complaints before the SEC against alleged violence by YSRCP to stall local body election process. Following the SC directive, the SEC ruled that candidates in four of 19 municipalities will be given more time. Addressing a press conference on Friday, former chief minister and YSRCP president YS Jagan Mohan Reddy said that the Naidu-led government was not honouring the SC directive and was going ahead with the anarchy in the local body elections. "The script in the ZPTC and MPTC nominations is no different and YSRCP candidates including women are being attacked, threatened and nomination papers being snatched and torn away," he said. TDP punched holes in Reddy's claims and said in ZPTC elections YSRCP had filed more nominations than any other party, which reflected that the elections are being conducted in a free and fair manner.

Ladakh SEC Puts Draft Delimitation Plan in Public, Seeks Feedback

Srinagar: The Ladakh State Election Commission on Friday issued separate notifications inviting objections and suggestions from the public and other stakeholders on the draft delimitation of constituencies for eight newly created Ladakh Autonomous Hill Development Councils (LAHDCs).

As per the eight notifications, objections and suggestions must be submitted to the respective deputy commissioners or block development officers by November 2.

The Commission has proposed to determine the boundaries of each constituency and invited public feedback on the draft proposals, prepared under the Ladakh Autonomous Hill Development Councils (Election) Rules, 2026. The delimitation process will take into account geographical contiguity, compactness of areas, panchayat boundaries, comparability of elector populations and the seasonal inaccessibility of constituencies.

The exercise aims to finalise constituency boundaries for the eight newly constituted hill councils in Leh, Kargil, Changthang, Nubra, Drass, Zanskar, Sham and Sankoo, in accordance with the applicable election rules.

On October 21, Ladakh Lieutenant Governor Vinai Kumar Saxena notified 100 constituencies for the eight LAHDCs, nearly doubling the existing strength of 52 seats. Under the new structure notified through the LAHDC (Amendment) Regulation, 2026, Leh will have 22 constituencies, Kargil 21, Sankoo 13, Changthang 10, Nubra, Sham and Zanskar nine each, and Drass seven.

Meanwhile, the newly formed Drass district of Ladakh observed a complete shutdown over alleged injustice in the allocation of LAHDC seats. "The more unilateral decisions the UT administration imposes, the deeper public resentment grows. Today's complete shutdown in Drass district reflects people's anger over the alleged injustice in the allocation of LAHDC seats," said Sajjad Kargili of the Kargil Democratic Alliance. He said Ladakh cannot be governed by imposing decisions while ignoring the voices of its people. "Justice, equal representation and public consultation are essential for democracy," Kargili said.

Maoist Couple Wanted in West Bengal and Jharkhand Surrenders Before Kolkata Police

Our Political Bureau

Kolkata: A Maoist couple, active in neighbouring Jharkhand and carrying bounties on their heads, surrendered before Kolkata Police Commissioner Ajay Kumar Nand on Friday and handed over their weapons. One of them was a close associate of slain Maoist leader Mallojula Koteswara Rao, better known as 'Kishenji'. The couple, wanted in both West Bengal and Jharkhand, surrendered before Nand at the Kolkata Police headquarters in Lalbazar, officials said.

Identified as Mangal and Malati, the couple originally hailed from West Bengal but had been active in Jharkhand, the Kolkata Police Commissioner said. According to sources, Jharkhand Police had announced a reward of ₹5 lakh for Mangal's arrest, while Malati carried a bounty of ₹2 lakh.

SIT Chief Flags Narrow Exits, Poor Lighting At Puja Pandal

Second announcer arrested for making 'pandal collapsing' announcements

Our Political Bureau

Kolkata: A retired Calcutta High Court judge, heading the Special Investigation Team (SIT) visited the Chorbagan Sarbojanin Durga Puja pandal and the site of the stampede on Thursday evening, while the Kolkata Police on Friday arrested a second announcer, Kushal Majumdar, who is accused of making a misleading announcement that allegedly triggered panic among devotees at the Durga Puja pandal in North Kolkata on the night of October 17.

During her visit to the pandal on Thursday evening, retired Justice Anindita Roy Saraswati said the entry and exit routes at the Chorbagan Sarbojanin Durga Puja pandal were "very narrow".

Saraswati also pointed out that poor lighting inside the pandal may have contributed to the incident. Sources said the emergency exit was locked when the chaos began to unfold on the premises. "The entrance and exit routes at pandal are very narrow, and the lighting arrangements inside were poor. The police said the emergency exit was closed at the time of the incident. We inspected the entire pavilion under the same lighting conditions as those prevailing during the incident," she told reporters. Asked about the SIT probe, Kolkata Police Commissioner Ajay Kumar Nand told mediapersons that he would not comment on the matter as the SIT had been formed to investigate the incident and submit its report. The Durga Puja pandal tragedy claimed 19 lives and left 25 others injured.

2ND ANNOUNCER ARRESTED

Kushal Majumdar, one of the persons who allegedly announced on the night of October 17 that the pandal might collapse, was arrested by the Girish Park police on Friday, people in the know said. Another person, Sanjib Raha, was arrested in Nadia district on Thursday on suspicion of making the misleading announcement over the microphone. With Majumdar's arrest, the total number of arrests in the stampede case has risen to nine.

Majumdar's wife claimed that officials of the Chorbagan Sarbojanin Durga Puja Committee had instructed her husband to announce that the pandal would collapse and also advised him to go underground until October 27.

Bengal CM Announces ₹342 cr Package for Jhargram, Woos Migrant Workers with Jobs

Jayatri Nag

Kolkata: West Bengal CM Suvendu Adhikari on Friday urged migrant workers to return to the state, assuring them of employment, while announcing a ₹342 crore development package for Jhargram and outlining plans for the all-round development of tribal communities in the district's tribal-dominated aras.

"For every job card holder, ₹34,500 should reach their bank account. Under VV GRAMG, we will now provide 125 days of work. We will provide work, and migrant workers can return to Bengal," the CM said. He directed state officials to expand the coverage of VV GRAMG, formerly MGNREGA, and bring more people under the scheme.

The CM promised overall development of tribal communities, covering schools, colleges, employment under GRAMG, and housing under the PM Awas Yojana. He said he wanted "massive, visible development on the ground" in Jhargram, in the Junglemahal region, with changes that people could see and experience.

Adhiakri visited Kalajhoria village, fulfilling a promise he made during his election campaign to return to the predominantly Lodha-Sabar tribal settlement.

UP: Cong Seeks Over 175 Seats from SP

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: The Congress has conveyed to the leadership of its ally, Samajwadi Party (SP), a wish list of contesting over 175 seats in the upcoming Uttar Pradesh assembly elections, the party's in-charge said here. However, the SP leadership is learnt to have found the Congress's demand disproportionate to its strength in the state. The SP is learnt to have asked the Congress to settle for 50 to 75 seats.

"I can't give the exact numbers, but we have submitted a list for 175 to 200 seats. The leadership of both parties will sit together to thrash out the nitty-gritty of the seat-sharing arrangement," AICC in-charge of Uttar Pradesh Rajendra Pal Gautam said here on Friday. The Congress currently has two members in the 403-member UP assembly. Representatives of Congress and SP are expected to hold further rounds of discussions on the alliance.

PAYMENT MEANT TO 'MANAGE' MARATHA ACTIVIST MANOJ JARANGE PATIL

BJP, Sena Spar as Fadnavis Orders Probe into Audio Clip Alleging ₹500 crore Deal

Krishna Kumar

Mumbai: Maharashtra chief minister Devendra Fadnavis on Friday ordered a forensic investigation into the audio clip claiming a ₹500 crore payment meant to "manage" Maratha quota activist Manoj Jarange Patil, even as the issue triggered a major slugfest between allies BJP and Shiv Sena.

Shiv Sena leader Ramdas Kadam demanded an answer from the BJP "because several BJP leaders' names are heard in the audio clip", and asked whether the BJP was getting insecure about Sena chief Eknath Shinde's rise. His statements came even as the BJP asked the Shiv Sena not to damage the ruling Mahayuti alliance by airing such issues in the public. Fadnavis, while announcing the forensic investigation, said: "We also have to figure out why this audio clip came out now after two-and-a-half years."

In the 2024 audio clip that Maratha leader Patil released on Thursday, a purported female BJP leader is heard claiming that Shinde received ₹500 crore from the BJP to manage Patil during elections. While Patil said the allegation was meant to damage his reservation movement, the Shiv Sena expressed intense outrage over the attack on Shinde's image and demanded a swift investigation.

"Eknath Shinde joined in an alliance with you by placing his trust, but now even you are getting insecure about Eknath Shinde," Kadam said on Friday in Mumbai, adding: "Is there someone in the BJP who is trying to hurt Shinde? Is there an attempt being done to stab Shinde in the back?" He was insinuating that the conversations of the alleged BJP leaders in the audio clip were meant to disparage the image of deputy CM Shinde. He produced several photographs showing BJP leaders, including MLC Pravind Darekar, with Patil, implying that the Maratha leader was attacking Shinde at the behest of the BJP.

Meanwhile, Darekar took on Kadam for going public on the issue. "He is trying to make it sound as if the BJP is behind this (audio clip). This is unfortunate. He is part of an alliance in the government, and you abuse your ally in the government. This does not sit well with us," the MLC said.

"He should understand that we can also raise questions on who supported Jarange Patil when he took on the chief minister. When you point a finger at us, there are fingers pointed also at you."

Darekar's comments seem to imply that Jarange's Maratha stir was propped up by the Shiv Sena to put Fadnavis, a Brahmin, in a spot.
